Plymouth Options

Anxiety & Depression Service

Supporting you to manage
Depression, Anxiety, Stress, OCD,
Phobias and Life Pressures

What does Plymouth Options offer?

At some time in our lives most of us find ourselves feeling low, worried, fearful or distressed. Plymouth Options offers a range of free services to help people manage common mental health problems such as:

- Depression
- Anxiety
- Stress
- Emotional distress from certain life events such as trauma, bereavement, separation, divorce, unemployment or redundancy
- Feeling overwhelmed by work or work problems
- Panic attacks
- Social Anxiety
- Obsessive Compulsive Disorder
- Phobias
- Sexual and relationship concerns

How can I access the service?

If you are 16 years and over, registered with a Plymouth GP there are a number of ways that you can access the different services that Plymouth Options provide.

You can self-refer via the following:

Telephone: 01752 435419

Download a referral form from:
www.plymouthoptions.com

Complete the attached referral form

Alternatively you can talk to your GP or other health and social care professionals who are able to send a referral on your behalf.

What happens next?

Once a referral is received we will contact you to arrange an appointment. If we are not the right service for your needs we will signpost you to an alternative service. On your first appointment with an Options Practitioner they will listen to understand the difficulties you are facing and then discuss the different treatment options and free courses available. This may include individual one to one therapy sessions or group work and they will help you to make choices which feel right for you.
